

RESOURCES FOR EDUCATORS

Add a little rocket fuel to your lesson plan!

The Canadian Space Agency can help you inspire youth and get them interested in STEM using space. We have resources that are curriculum relevant and provide opportunities with a Canadian twist for K-12 youth and educators. These are designed for formal and informal learning contexts in schools, science centres, youth organizations or at home.

Hands-on activities, digital games and experiments

Toolkits on various space topics

Posters, infographics and images

Videos by astronauts and experts

Printable materials, colouring sheets and models

Content on Indigenous ways of knowing

Talks with astronauts and space experts

Career profiles and information

Funding opportunities for schools, science centres, museums, and organizations
